

Report on Marshall School's 75th Republic Day Celebration

On January 26, a significant day etched in every Indian's heart, our constitution officially took effect in 1950, marking the beginning of India's journey as a republic, democratic, and sovereign nation. This day is celebrated annually with grandeur and patriotic fervor. The year 2023 held special significance as it commemorated the 75th Republic Day of India at Marshall School. A grand ceremony unfolded, featuring a series of events conducted with immense pride and joy in the presence of students, faculty, and staff. The program commenced with the unfurling of the National Flag, followed by the traditional singing of the national anthem and an impressive parade by students. A captivating performance by the choir group on 'Vande Mataram' ensued.

Subsequently, Sumit Bhatt, a Class 11 student, delivered a stirring speech, followed by an outstanding dance performance by junior school students. Another Republic Day speech was delivered by Sanvi Khanduri from the junior school, leading to yet another patriotic performance that stirred the audience. A song by the senior section on 'Choddo kal ki baatein' left a lasting impact, followed by an enlightening speech from Class 11 student Kumkum Chaudhary and another speech by Prince Naithani of junior section.

The junior school students then presented a venturesome dance on 'Yeh duniya ek dulhan,' followed by a moving song 'Ae vatan ae vatan' and 'Mera Mulk Mera desh' by the Junior section. A series of dance performances by both junior and senior sections captivated the audience, leaving them in awe.

Concluding the event, President and Advocate , Marshall School Society, Mr. Rajnish Juyal expressed gratitude in his vote of thanks, emphasizing the school's homage to the heroes who sacrificed for India's freedom and the reiteration of sacred values enshrined in the constitution at Marshall School.
